

Vision Statement

Huron-Perth Centre will be a leader in providing effective community-based services to address a broad range of child and youth mental health concerns.

Mission Statement

The Huron-Perth Centre provides timely access to a range of assessment and treatment services offered by skilled professional staff in collaboration with children, youth, families and their community.

Belief Statement

We believe that positive relationships are the foundation for healing and for realizing the potential in all persons.

Value Statement

Our work is guided by these values:

Strengths - A focus on strengths helps individuals build resilience.

Family - "Family" is the most important resource to children and youth.

Dignity and Worth - All children, youth and families have the right to make choices about their treatment.

Collaboration - The needs of children, youth and families are best met when we all work together.
