

Susan Qureshi, President - Sue has a passion for families and an interest in providing support for families experiencing challenges. She has earned a Psychology degree, a Master's in Business Administration and a Masters in Counselling Psychology. Sue has a vast knowledge of governance and brings many years of experience sitting on a Board of Director's. Sue currently works with a community hospice providing grief and bereavement support and is an avid volunteer for several organizations.